The first scenery is Zhonghua (which means China) Gate (tour length: approximately 30 seconds). Zhonghua (China) Gate, formerly called the Treasure Pot Gate, is the largest and most complicated ancient castle around the world. Covering an area of 15,168 square meters, 20 meters high, the gate has 4 entrances with 4 doors. Behind the first conventional double panel wooden door, there are 3 other 23-centimeter-thick vertically sliding stone doors. The heavy stone doors are lifted and dropped with the help of a mechanical winch. If enemy troops broke through the first wooden door, they could be separated and trapped inside by the dropping of the other 3 stone doors. This strategy is known in China as "beating dogs behind a bolted door." When finish the tour at Zhonghua Gate, we will head to Confucius Temple, which is a place to memorize Confucius. The first scenery we will visit is Jiangnan Imperial Examination Center. It was for the examinations at province level. Visitors today can see a watchtower, where the invigilators watched the students during the examinations, a good number of stone tablets and 40 cubicles where the students took the examinations in the daytime and slept at night. visitors can also see a demonstration of the imperial examination. Then, we will head to the temple for memorizing Confucius. Built in the Song Dynasty, it is the ritual place of worshipping and offering sacrifices to Confucius. But now the whole area, after its recent renovation and restoration, becomes a replica of old local life and typical architecture in Ming and Qing styles. Confucius Temple is located at the center of the old town of Nanjing. First build in the Song Dynasty; Confucius Temple was a place where students came to pay respect to Confucius.

It was gradually renovated and expanded to a place with a group of Ming and Qing style buildings. A street of local delicacies, Former Residence of Wang's and Xie's at Wuyi Lane, and Nangjing Oriental Art Gallery were rebuilt and renovated in 1997. Confucius Temple Area becomes a commercial and tourist site. It is a good place for tourists to understand traditional Chinese culture.

Our dinner will be Nanjing Local Delicacy. You can enjoy local Nanjing delicacies beside the Qinhuai River, as well as local musical performance around in the hall. With the satisfaction of your mouth, eyes and ears.

After the dinner, we will enjoy a boat trip on Qinhuai River in a traditional Chinese style boat and enjoy art performance on the boat.
